

The Association of Women Executives in Corrections

Who We Are ▶▶▶

The Association of Women Executives in Corrections is an active voice for women executives in corrections. AWEC works towards reasoned change and the development of future leaders. Over 250 members strong, our mission is to provide leadership development for executive women, support the career advancement of women in corrections, and promote informed discussion of correctional issues in an atmosphere of mutual respect.

AWEC is a 501c3 tax exempt organization and designated as a public charity by the IRS.

Where does your contribution go? ▶▶▶

Contributions of sponsors go to support AWEC's operation, including the following activities:

Annual Professional Conference: A powerful professional development and networking opportunity.

Emerging Executives (E2): An annual professional development opportunity for emerging leaders.

Networking Opportunities: AWEC sponsors gatherings to offer support to executive women at other national conferences.

Newsletter: AWEC produces an informative newsletter several times a year.

Website: AWEC has launched a website which is a mechanism of ongoing support for our members and provides information access for stakeholders and interested parties.

National Voice: Position statements on critical national issues in corrections that promote reasoned change.
