ASSOCIATION OF WOMEN EXECUTIVES IN CORRECTIONS

HISTORY

AWEC was born out of the desire of correctional trailblazers to increase the leadership skills of female correctional executives and to develop the future generation of women leaders. The charter members in 1996 passed a constitution, and adopted a mission statement and elected their first officers. With membership over 650, AWEC has become a dynamic professional organization where executive women in corrections can network with their peers, enhance their skills and mentor future female correctional leaders.

VALUES

- Developing women as executive leaders will enhance the effectiveness of the correctional field.
- Power of relationships is the foundation for success.
- Encouraging, mentoring and modeling women will provide the support in their efforts to achieve their full potential.
- Trust, respect, and integrity are inherent qualities for executive leadership.

Diversity in membership, ideas and perspectives enriches the Association

MISSION

Our mission is to provide leadership development for executive women, support the career advancement of women in corrections, and promote informed discussion of correctional issues in an atmosphere of mutual respect.
